Dear [REDACTED]

Further to our previous correspondence regarding your request for the following information:

Please could you provide me with the names and contact details of your procurement managers? We provide shipping containers for Sale, Hire and we also convert them into whatever is required. We would like to tender for any contract that may be coming up. We have worked for the MOD before many years ago.

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

A search for the requested information within the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) has now been completed, and we can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

However, the information you have requested falls entirely within the exemption provided for under section 21 of the Act (Information accessible to applicant by other means). Information in scope of your request can be found on our website:

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications. If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you are unhappy with the way your request has been handled you have a right to request an internal review within 40 days of receiving this letter, by writing to information.requests@awe.co.uk or our postal address: Information Requests Team, AWE Aldermaston, Reading, RG7 4PR. If you are still unhappy after an internal review has been completed, under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 you have the right to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. Please note the Commissioner will generally not consider a complaint until you have exhausted AWE's internal complaints process.

Yours sincerely,

AWE Information Requests Team
